

Locators use special tools to find underground wires and pipes. They spray lines on the ground to show what kind of wires and pipes are buried there. Each line has a different color that shows what is underneath it. Color the different spray cans to show what's below!

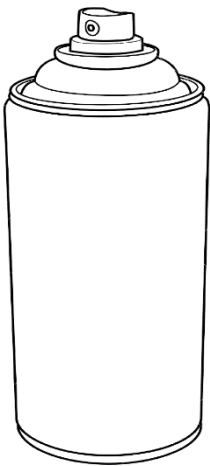

Electricity

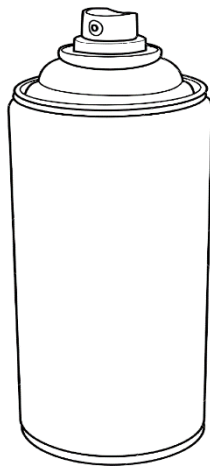

Gas or Oil

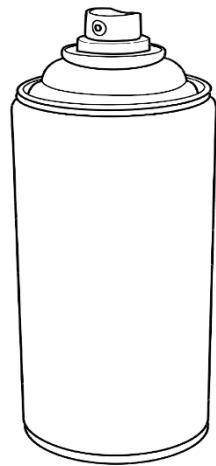

Communications

Drinking Water

Recycled Water

Sewer